50. Memoriams

In remembrance of Willie N. Brown.

Oh, how we miss you since you went away.
The hurt still lingers,
as if it were yesterday.
A year has passed since you were home,
It's rough to walk the road alone.

We never realized the time was so near,
We'd have to give up one so
dear,
It's hard to understand — even harder to accept,
But when God makes a promise — it's always best.

With your kind gentle hands
—patient smiling face,
All the beautiful memories will never erase.

Guess you'd want to know that Little Ben has grown quite a lot,
Running around playing as any little tot, Asking questions about near and far,
And always speaking of his Grandpa.
Billy and Wanda come home, but they seem so sad When they look around and don't see Dad.
And Little Bouncer just lies around,
Seems to be waiting for you to come home,
To take her for walks and let her roam.
You visit me often in my dreams,
And oh, how natural it seems
I just reach out and touch you,
And hear you call my name, But daddy, our home will never be the same.

When our life on earth comes to an end,
I pray, we'll all be together-as a family again — Forever Sadly missed by family

Nash returns from patrol off East Coast

Coast Guard Fireman Apprentice Robert R. Nash, son of Robert R. and Eleanor L. Nash of Pamplin, Va., recently returned from a Law Enforcement Patrol off the East Coast.

He is a crewmember aboard the Coast Guard cutter Reliance, homeported in Yorktown, Va.

During the patrol the Reliance cruised more than 2,300 miles and boarded 24 vessels from three different countries to enforce international treaties and U.S. laws.

The Reliance is a 210-foot long, medium endurance cutter with a crew of 66. Designed for search and rescue and law enforcement duties, it can accomodate a light helicopter. The Reliance is the Coast Guard's only designated reserve training cutter.

Nash joined the Coast Guard in February 1980.
